Description: The tour starts at the information booth at the parking lot in Habachtal. After a few meters, the main road is immediately left, and the "Emerald Trail" is entered. The ranger narrates along the way about the peculiarities of the glacial valley and the green, glittering treasure beneath the ground: the precious emeralds. Additionally, participants learn about how stone searching works and where exactly it is allowed. Nature observations also play a significant role – with some luck, one might spot either golden eagles or marmots. The conclusion of the tour is marked by the Almgasthof Alpenrose. There, you can take a break, either leave with the ranger, or depart with the "Emerald Taxi."
